

OUR VALUES

Commitment to nonviolence

Self-determination

Upholding confidentiality

Teamwork

Continued development

Collaboration

THEORY OF CHANGE

WHO WE WORK WITH

Asian and Pacific Islander domestic violence and sexual assault survivors

Asian and Pacific Islander communities

California and Greater Los Angeles County

WHAT WE DO

Direct services

(linguistically accessible and culturally responsive)

- Crisis intervention through 24/7 hotline
- Comprehensive case management
- Counseling, support groups, healing and empowerment activities
- Provide safe refuge through emergency and transitional shelters
- Skills and resource building

Prevention work and community engagement

(practices/philosophy of nonviolence)

- Enhance skills and knowledge of healthy relationships through parenting with nonviolence, youth and advocate training programs
- Outreach and education/awareness-raising activities
- Capacity building for community partners

System alignment/change and policy advocacy

- Coalition building/participation
- Raising API survivor voices
- Working with schools and school districts
- Advocate across sectors for equitable resource allocation for survivors

OUTCOMES WE SEEK

Empowered, nurtured, resilient API DV/SA survivors and supportive communities

Supportive API community that promotes culturally appropriate norms for healthy, violence-free relationships

More accessible and equitable systems and policies for API DV/SA survivors

OUR VISION

An Asian and Pacific Islander community that embraces healthy relationships and works in partnership with other communities to eradicate all forms of violence